

Message from the Editor

There's so much to say in this issue, I need to keep this message short to save some space. We've got some congratulations to give, hellos and goodbyes to say, a report back on the team building session and loads more! Don't forget to keep the news coming! Happy reading.

Caryn

New Water Resources Study

Congratulations to Manie and his team who assisted in submitting the Levuvhu Proposal (twice!) WRP has been awarded the job

*Mandela Day:
WRP contribution*

Thanks to Brad's suggestion, WRP contributed R10 000 to Kids Haven in Benoni, housing children that are currently not attending school and are funding a 'getting ready for school' bridging course. Kids Haven houses approximately 200 children.

THE AMAZING RACE

WRP A Misa Group Company

The first rule of the race...
STAY together in your teams!

Waist?

The second rule of the race...
Follow all instructions...
"Attach each member of your team at their waist to the rope provided"

Pieter taking much pleasure in the orange team's pain

Even had time to pose for a photo

It's done like this Niel!

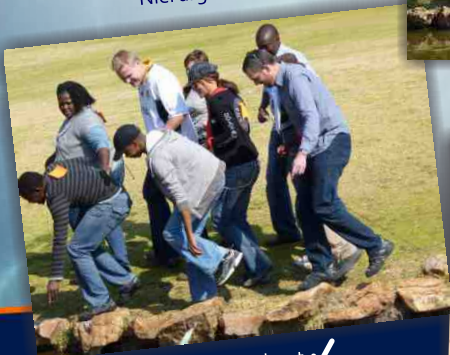

Niel argueing again!

Such skill Willem!

Well done to the blue team for winning the Amazing Race. Special mention must go to Willem for solving the riddle without help

Chillis boat ✓
Brads boat ✓
Johanneses boat.....?

Such concentration

Well done to Ronnie for competing in the National Paragliding Championship held in June 2011 at Baberton. Ronnie didn't come last!

Pictured here with the world paragliding champ (On the right!)

Ronnie taking off....

... and in mid-flight

News
Meet a client

Tendani Nditwani

Full name: Tendani Nditwani

Employment period at DWA: 1997-present

Education: Civil Engineering Field, MSC Water and Environmental Management

Home town: TSHAKHUMA (earlier years) and SIBASA (now) in Limpopo Province

Hobbies: Chess, Cycling, Watching F1, Tennis, (Rugby, Soccer, sometimes).
What is a hobby?

Sports teams: Team Nadal, Team Barcelona and Chelsea, team scuderia Ferrari, Team Vodacom Bulls